

TEMPORARY CONSTRUCTION/OFFICE TRAILER PERMITTING: ON SITE

Submittal Requirements

- Six (6) site plans with legal description.
- Six (6) sets of state approved modular building plans with floor layout.
- Six (6) sets of handicap ramp/stairs plans showing materials, slope, handrails, guardrails, landings, construction details (applicable to trailers larger than 500 square feet).
- Temporary building or sheds used exclusively for construction purposes are exempt from the Florida Building Code. Temporary construction office trailers are exempt from the Florida Building Code (FBC) by Section 102.2(e), except for provisions relating to accessibility by persons with disabilities.
 - The following Land Development Code standards regulate construction trailers.
 - Construction office trailers require a Building permit.
 - Construction trailers shall be used only as offices for developers/contractors with the customary uses such as project management and storage of building plans. No storage of building materials or sales activities shall be permitted.
 - Construction trailers may be allowed for a period up to 2 years with additional 6-months extensions, but shall not be installed until after the issuance of a building permit and shall be removed within 30 days of issuance of the final Certificate of Occupancy.
 - Construction trailers shall not be required to meet development standards for permanent structures (parking, landscaping etc.) but shall meet applicable setback requirements.
 - Construction trailers shall be well maintained by the developer, property owner, or contractor or his or her designee. Failure to comply may result in revocation of the approval.
 - Appearance review shall not be required unless located within the Downtown CRA.
 - Other than developer/contractor identification, no other signs shall be allowed on the trailer. Construction signs must meet the requirements of Section 64.244. Construction signs require a separate building permit.
 - These standards do not apply to off-site construction trailers.
